English information

Although the Plone-Tagung will mainly be conducted in German and focuses on the exchange of ideas within the German-speaking Plone community, we would be delighted to welcome any international guests or speakers.

Talks can therefore be held in English if you don't speak German.

Schedule

The main event starts around lunch time on 4th March 2024 and is due to end around 4pm on 6th March 2024.

Immediately following the main event, the Sprint seminar will be introduced and conducted. This will continue for the next two days until the afternoon of Friday, 8th March 2024.
